Rutgers Educational Opportunity Fund (EOF) Program Application 2010 for First-Year Students, New Jersey Residents Only

Educational Opportunity Fund Mission Statement

The New Jersey Educational Opportunity Fund (EOF) Program contributes to the development of a college-educated public that reflects the diversity of New Jersey. In partnership with Rutgers, the New Jersey EOF Program provides access to higher education and support for highly motivated students who exhibit the potential for success, but who come from economically and educationally disadvantaged families/communities. Accordingly, the New Jersey EOF Program supports innovative educational initiatives, supplemental instruction, support services, and leadership development activities to improve students' chances of academic success. In concert with other sources of financial assistance, the New Jersey EOF Program also makes college affordable for students who find the costs of higher education prohibitive.

Eligibility Requirements

Generally, families who have accumulated assets do not qualify for financial assistance through the New Jersey EOF Program. To be considered, you and your family must have a documented history of academic and financial disadvantage and meet the income guidelines listed below.

EOF Income Eligibility Scale

Household Size (including student)	Family Gross Income Does Not Exceed:
1	$21,660
2	$29,140
3	$36,620
4	$44,100
5	$51,580
6	$59,060
7	$66,540
8	$74,020

Add $7,480 for each additional member of the household.

If you meet these income guidelines, you also must meet the following requirements:

1. You and your parents must be U.S. citizens or eligible noncitizens with a valid Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-151, I-551, I-551 C), I-94 or I-94A (with refugee status or asylum granted), or T-visa (T-1, T-2, T-3, etc.) indicating that you and your parents have been permanent residents for at least one year prior to fall semester enrollment. You and your parents must be New Jersey residents for at least one year prior to fall semester enrollment.
2. You must be a first-generation college student (i.e., your parents are not four-year college graduates).
3. You must have received a high school diploma or a high school equivalency diploma by the time you register for college.
4. You must complete the 2010–2011 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by the priority filing date of March 15, 2010. Ensure that Rutgers receives your FAFSA from the federal processor by including the Rutgers federal school code 002629 in Step 5 (online) or Step 6 (paper). You can complete and submit your FAFSA online at fafsa.ed.gov, or you can obtain the paper FAFSA from your high school guidance office, the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4FEDAID, or any one of the regional financial aid offices at Rutgers. To file your FAFSA online, you must obtain your Personal Identification Number (PIN) at pin.ed.gov. To complete the FAFSA verification process, you must submit all requested documents to Rutgers' Office of Financial Aid prior to the start of the EOF Summer Institute.

EOF Summer Institute

The New Jersey EOF Program can help you both before and during college. If you are admitted to one of Rutgers' undergraduate schools as an EOF student, you must attend a free five-, six-, or seven-week summer program that eases the transition from high school to college and sharpens your English, math, and science skills. You'll meet new friends, and your EOF Summer Institute tuition and other educational expenses will be paid for. The EOF Summer Institute begins toward the end of June 2010.

Advising/Counseling

Before the fall semester begins, your EOF advisers will help you plan an academic program to meet your interests and needs. Your undergraduate school will provide you with tutorial services and a special staff of academic, career, and peer counselors. With this support, you'll be able to identify your academic strengths, overcome limitations, and define career fields that interest you. All of the university's other resources also are available to help you.

Financial Assistance

Although the New Jersey EOF Program can provide financial help, you and your family are asked to contribute as much as you can reasonably afford. EOF students receive both TAG (Tuition Aid Grant) and EOF grants from the state of New Jersey. In addition, qualified students are eligible to receive grant assistance from the federal government and Rutgers. Financial assistance will vary depending upon your need as determined by the FAFSA and the availability of funds. To receive an official offer of financial assistance from Rutgers that includes the EOF grant, TAG, and other need-based aid programs, you should submit your FAFSA to the federal processor as soon after January 1, 2010, as possible to meet the priority application date of March 15, 2010. Visit Rutgers' Office of Financial Aid online at studentaid.rutgers.edu for more information.

EOF Application Instructions

The information on the EOF application is used to make a preliminary determination of your eligibility for the New Jersey EOF Program. Final acceptance into the New Jersey EOF Program will be contingent upon the results of the required FAFSA. If you are a transfer student who has previously participated in the New Jersey EOF Program at another New Jersey college, please do not complete this EOF application. Transfer students should submit the FAFSA, complete an EOF Transfer Form, and contact the Office of Financial Aid at the regional Rutgers campus where they plan to enroll. All students in consideration for the EOF grant must submit their family's 2009 federal income tax returns and/or nontaxable income statements to the Rutgers Office of Financial Aid for the FAFSA verification process. The applicant's full name and Rutgers University Identification (RUID) number must be written on the income tax forms and nontaxable income statements. Please do not leave any items blank on this application. Mail the completed EOF application to: Office of University Undergraduate Admissions, 65 Davidson Road, Room 202, Piscataway, NJ 08854-8097.

The following determines who is considered a parent for the purposes of this form. Answer all questions.

1. If your parents are both living and married to each other, answer the questions about them.
2. If your parent is widowed or single, answer the questions about that parent. If your widowed parent has remarried as of today, answer the questions about that parent AND the person to whom your parent is married (your stepparent).
3. If your parents have divorced or separated, answer the questions about the parent you lived with more during the last 12 months. (If you did not live with one parent more than the other, give answers about the parent who provided more financial support during the last 12 months or during the most recent year that you actually received support from a parent.) If this parent has remarried as of today, answer the questions about that parent AND the person to whom your parent is married (your stepparent).

Note: Grandparents, foster parents, and legal guardians are not considered as parents on this form unless they have legally adopted you.
