THE MASON GROSS EXTENSION DIVISION
AT RUTGERS UNIVERSITY PRESENTS

BFA COLLEGE AUDITION SEMINAR

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 2018
1:30 PM - 4:30 PM

ART HISTORY BUILDING, ROOM 100
85 GEORGE STREET
NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ 08901

Join STEPHEN AGOSTO, Rutgers High School Musical Theater Academy Artistic Director and Senior Manager of Artistic Engagement at the Papermill Playhouse, for a workshop on how to find the college theater program that is right FOR YOU! This seminar is designed to help students and their families navigate through the frenzy of the college acceptance process.

This workshop for students and parents will discuss:

- The differences between BA and BFA study (with benefits to each)
- The criteria every student should be looking for in a theater program
- The "Audition Season Timeline"
- How to find money for school
- Audition expectations and breaking down application jargon
- What songs and monologues to choose when auditioning for schools

$100 per family (max 2 parents and 2 high school age students)

To register:

Contact the Extension Division Office at (848) 932-8618,
or register online: mgedrhsmta.wordpress.com/spring-workshops