UNIVERSITY COLLEGE-CAMDEN
1. Criteria for Re-Enrollment for Rutgers University-Camden students who have been academically dismissed

Credits
- First-time dismissed students MUST have successfully completed at least 12 transferable credits at an academic credit-bearing institution.

Grade-Point Average
- Students must have earned a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 2.50 at an academic credit-bearing institution.

Required Documents
- Students must complete an appeal for re-admission application (prior to completing the re-enrollment application).
- Students must complete a re-enrollment application (after their re-admission application has been approved).
- Students must provide evidence (i.e. an official transcript of any college courses taken since leaving Rutgers) that they can now do satisfactory work at Rutgers-Camden. Send credentials to: Admissions Office; Attention: Re-Enrollment; 406 Penn Street; Camden, New Jersey 08102.

Conditions
- Students must first be approved for re-admission by the Scholastic Standing Committee before the re-enrollment application can be approved.
- If a student was academically dismissed twice, s/he is ineligible to continue studies at Rutgers University.
- If a student was on probation, they MUST still abide by those conditions upon their return to Rutgers-Camden.
- Students must earn a minimum of 30 credits at Rutgers-Camden in order to receive a degree from the school.
- Students MUST clear any financial holds at Rutgers-Camden by the designated deadline, before the re-enrollment application can be approved.
Other

- Some programs have special academic standards in addition to the conditions of admission to University College-Camden. If the Scholastic Standing Committee decides in favor of re-admission, this decision applies to admission to University College-Camden only. It does not imply admissibility to a particular professional program (e.g. School of Business, School of Nursing, or School of Social Work).

2. Criteria for Re-Enrollment for returning Rutgers students who have not been dismissed and are in good academic standing

Credits

- If a student attended another college or university since her or his last Rutgers enrollment, an official transcript must be forwarded directly to the Office of Admissions; Attention: Re-Enrollment; 406 Penn Street; Camden, New Jersey 08102.

Required Documents

- Students must complete a re-enrollment application.
- Official transcript of any college courses taken since leaving Rutgers.

Conditions

- Non-matriculated students are permitted to take a maximum of 30 credits.
- If a student was on probation, they MUST still abide by those conditions upon their return to Rutgers-Camden.
- Students must be in good academic standing (cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.0 or higher).
- Students must earn a minimum of 30 credits at Rutgers-Camden in order to receive a degree from the school.
- Students MUST clear any financial holds at Rutgers-Camden by the designated deadline, before the re-enrollment application can be approved.

3. Graduation Requirements

- All students are required to complete general education requirements, major requirements, and a minimum of 120 credits to be eligible to obtain a degree from Rutgers-Camden. Additionally, students must have a 2.00 or higher cumulative grade-point average.
